

Climate change is not a game.

Global fairness means that all carry responsibilities. The consequences of our lifestyles impact the poor and powerless the most.

Limiting global warming to less than a 2°C increase through drastic emission cuts in the developed world and greater climate protection in developing countries is necessary for our climate and our survival!

Concept & Layout:
Sofia Kermas
Daniel Knauft

Supported by:

BMZ

Federal Ministry
for Economic Cooperation and Development

Germanwatch is responsible for the content.